

6516205826.txt

The first amendment has been under heavy attack lately. The USA seems to want to censor things more readily than support them. Free speech is one of the qualities that makes us the USA. To lose this right is just one step closer to something that the forefathers of our country fought against.